

LETTER 92

BRISBANE
Febry. 11th. 1910

Messrs. Veritys Ltd.,
King Street, Covent Garden,
London

Dear Sirs,

In the event of your not having done anything with my "Automatic Fire Alarm" sent to Mr. Arnold, I authorize Mr. James Hurlll to do what he thinks fit, and would esteem it a favour if you would give him any assistance re cost of manufacture &c. Mr Hurlll has full power to deal any way he thinks fit.

I am,

Yours faithfully,
Alf Geo Jackson
