

LETTER 93

BRISBANE
Febry. 11th 1910

Mr. Arnold,
Messrs. Veritys Ltd.,
King Street, London

Dear Sir,

In the event of your not having done anything with my "Automatic Fire Alarm" sent to you, I authorize Mr. James Hurll to do what he thinks fit, and would esteem it a favour if you would give him any assistance re cost of manufacture &c.

Mr. Hurll has full power to deal any way he thinks fit.

I am,

Yours faithfully,
Alf Geo Jackson
