

LETTER 115

9 th. December 1920

A. Langley-Simmons, Esq.,
Langley House,
Gray Rd & Moray St,
HILL END

Dear Sir,

The loan of £25. borrowed from me last April 26 th. and to be returned within a week or fortnight is still unpaid, and your repeated promises come to nothing.

I regret exceedingly that if I do not receive the whole or part within a week from today I shall be forced to appeal to my solicitor and take action, as I must have a settlement.

I am,

Yours faithfully,
Alf Geo Jackson
